

I appreciate the protection of wisconsin's No Call List. It ensures my family's privacy while protecting my right to use my telephone for personal communication. The government is supposed to be 'by the people for the people', not for businesses. Lobbies are much too strong in this country. Don't be lazy, listen to the individual, and protect our personal freedoms. Leave the Wisconsin No Call List as it stands.